Isacar Bolaños (California State University, Long Beach): Disease and the State in Late Ottoman Iraq, 1821-1899

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F26: Laser Focus: Planning, Modeling, and Implementing Interferometry to Illuminate the Science-Technology-Policy Interface

Organizer: Connemara Doran (Harvard University)

Chair: Theresa Levitt (University of Mississippi)

Commentator: David Kaiser (Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT))

Connemara Doran (Harvard University): Precision Interferometry from Fizeau and Michelson to the Cosmic First Light

Tiffany Nichols (Harvard University): More Than Models: Prototypes as Historical Records of the Evolving Epistemic Understandings of the Future Object of Study

Daniel Kennefick (University of Arkansas): Lasers in Space: A Preliminary Focus on the History of LISA, the Proposed Space-Based Gravitational Wave Detector

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F27: Explaining Everything: Models, Machines, and Black Boxes in Histories of Science and Technology

Organizer: Lan Li (Rice University)

Chair: Elizabeth Petrick (Rice University)

Els Woudstra (Rice University): "The Boxed Gut: Human Waste Production and Digestive Anxiety in the United States (1951-1979)"

Lan Li (Rice University): "Battery Boxes: Cyborg Connections and Cesarean Sections in Colombo (1962-1985)"

Jan Müggenburg (Leuphana University, Lüneburg): "Functional Boxes: UNIFACE, the Personal Computer, and Accessibility in 1990s Germany"

Rodolfo John Alaniz (University of Texas at Austin): "Body Boxes: Sexual Inversion and the Embodiment of Sexual Selection"

Friday, 19 November 2021

12:30 PM – 2:00 PM (CT)

Plenary Lecture: Da Vinci Medalists 2020 and 2021

- Chair: Tom Misa (University of Minnesota)
- Da Vinci Medallist 2021: Suzanne Moon (The University of Oklahoma)
- Da Vinci Medallists 2020:
 - o Maria Paula Diogo (New University of Lisbon)
 - o Arthur P. Molella (Director Emeritus, Lemelson Center, National Museum of American History)

Friday, 19 November 2021

12:45 PM – 13:45 PM

FUTURES (joint SHOT-HSS SESSION)

Making and Doing History: On Non-Traditional Modes of Critical Engagement (Roundtable)

Organizers: Crystal Lee (MIT) and Ranjodh Singh Dhaliwal, UC Davis/Notre Dame)

Co-chairs: Ranjodh Singh Dhaliwal (UC Davis / Notre Dame) and Crystal Lee (MIT)

Laine Nooney (New York University)

Xiaochang Li (Stanford University):

Bess Williamson (Art Institute of Chicago)

Mar Hicks (Illinois Institute of Technology)

Whitney Pow (New York University)

Friday, 19 November 2021

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM (CT)

F28: Social Justice in the Twentieth-Century Aviation Industry

Organizer: Caroline Johnson (The University of Texas at Austin)

Chair: Michael Hankins (Smithsonian National Air & Space Museum)

Commentator: Chandra Bhimull (Colby College)

Delali Kumavie (Harvard University): Trapped in the Airport: Haunted Borders and Racialization in Abdulrazak Gurnah's By the Sea

Caroline Johnson (The University of Texas at Austin): "On a Social Basis": The International Society of Women Airline Pilots, 1978-2001 (Robinson Candidate)

F29: Making and Modeling Wireless Waves, from Hertz to Andronov

Organizer: Alexei B. Kojevnikov (University of British Columbia)

Chair: Karl Hall (Central European University)

Chen-Pang Yeang (University of Toronto) How to Make Sense of Heinrich Hertz's Claim of Discovering Electric Waves

Scott A. Walter (Université de Nantes): Solving the Triode: the Appleton–van der Pol Collaboration

Shaul Katzir (Tel Aviv University): Dynamic Theories and Models in Developing Wireless- Related Devices

Climério Paulo da Silva Neto (Federal University of Western Bahia), Co-Author Alexei B. Kojevnikov (University of British Columbia): Nonlinear Feedback Loop: Radio-Engineering and Fundamental Science in the Soviet School of Oscillations

SHOT Internationalization Committee sponsored session:

F30: Beyond the Deficiency Narrative? Postcolonial Histories of LTS in Sub-Saharan Africa

Organizer: Dazhi Yao (Institute for the History of Natural Sciences, Chinese Academy of Sciences)

Chair: Dazhi Yao (Institute for the History of Natural Sciences, Chinese Academy of Sciences)

Commentator: Jethron Ayumbah Akallah (Maseno University, Kisumu, Kenya)

Jessica Pourraz (Université Gustave Eiffel, Institut Francilien Recherche Innovation en Société): Making Medicines in post-colonial Ghana State policies for industrial development and production of technical knowledge

Frank Edward (University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania): Swala Bicycles: A Hubris Account from Tanzania

Jean Gecit (Sorbonne University): History of solar energy in West Africa: Environment, Infrastructure and Social Justice (1960-1987)

F31: Transnational Transfers of Technologies in Late Socialist Eastern Europe: Infrastructural Cooperation and the Question of Socialist Justice

Organizer: Andy Bruno (Northern Illinois University)

Chair: Andy Bruno (Northern Illinois University)

Viktor Pál (University of Ostrava): Scientists and long duration environmental change in Hungary, 1800-1990

Christine Evans (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee): One Hour in Our World: Envisioning Satellite Communications across the Iron Curtain

Stephen Brain (Mississippi State University): Divided by a Common Goal: Soviet and U.S. Scientific Exchange during the Space Age

Saara Matala (Chalmers University of Technology): Infrastructure of Transnational Security and Welfare: The Finnish-Soviet Oil Trade, 1972-1992

F32: The Nuances of Innovation I-Strategy and Process

Chair: TBA

Emmet von Stackelberg (Rutgers University–New Brunswick): The Indeterminacy of Incorporation: Purity, Waste, and the Chemical Origins of Motion Pictures (Robinson Candidate)

Phillip Bradford (University of Connecticut), Co-Author Paul Miranti: From Analogy to Identity: Carrier Circuit Multiplexing at the Bell System, 1900-1939

Howie Schneider (The University at Albany): Wouldn't be Cool if We Tried This.... (Robinson Candidate)

F33: The Architecture and Imaginaries of Harrowing Places

Chair: Stuart Leslie (JHU)

Bree Lohman (University of Toronto, Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Technology): Breaking Ground: The SAGE Underground Complex in North Bay, Ontario, 1959-1963 (Robinson Candidate)

Angela Cope (York University): A Plastic Architecture: An Antarctic Case Study and Future Imaginaries

Yijun Sun (University of Massachusetts Amherst): The Spirits of Wireless: Ghost Hunting in the 19th Century Wireless Engineering

Joseph Makkos (Louisiana State University): 1969 Hurricane Camille Scrapbook Collection

F34: Risky Technologies and Technologies of Risk

Organizer: Stefan Esselborn (Technical University Munich (TUM))

Chair: Karin Zachmann (Technical University Munich (TUM))

Stefan Esselborn (Technical University Munich (TUM)): 'Project Risk Strategy'. Nuclear Energy and the Emergence of Risk Research in West Germany

Siegfried Evens (KTH Stockholm): Nuclear Risks, Old and New. Governing Water, Steam and Nuclear Safety

Elijah Huges (Wesleyan University): Egress

SHOT PRESIDENTIAL session I

F35: Blackness and Material Culture

Organizer and Chair: Arwen Mohun (University of Delaware)

Commentators: Audience

Panel:

Kelli Coles (University of Delaware): "Phebe Cash of Newburyport, MA: Black Girls & Women's Contributions to Needlework & Textile Production in Early America"

Ashley Rogers (Whitney Institute and Whitney Plantation Museum): "Whitney Plantation: Interpreting Slavery, Technology and Labor in Public History"

Rayvon Fouché (Purdue University): "Limited Edition: Innovation, Technology, and the Racialization of Sneakers"

F36: Cold War Enclosures

Organizer: Jeffrey Mathias (Cornell University)

Chair: Leah Aronowsky (Columbia University)

Jordan Bimm (University of Chicago): Designs on Mars: Cold War Models of a Green and Red Planet

Poornima Paidipaty (London School of Economics): 'The Grammar of the Semi-Exact Sciences': Norbert Wiener in India, 1955-1956

Jeffrey Mathias (Cornell University): Inner Space/Outer Space: Sensory Deprivation and the Astronaut

Bernard Geoghegan (Kings College London): Cybernetic Colonialism

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F37: Systems Thinking and Its Politics in Cold-War East Asia and Beyond

Organizer: Yize Hu (Johns Hopkins University)

Chair: Sigrid Schmalzer (University of Massachusetts Amherst)

Commentator: Egle Rindzeviciute (Kingston University London)

Sigrid Schmalzer (University of Massachusetts Amherst)

Bo An (Yale University/MPIWG)

Yize Hu (Johns Hopkins University)

Angela Xiao Wu (New York University)

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F38: Making Sense of the World: Science, Technology & the Senses

Organizer: Gabriella Petrick (University of Stavanger)

Chair: Gerard Fitzgerald (George Mason University)

Gabriella M. Petrick (University of Stavanger)

Andy Flack (University of Bristol)

Mica Jorgenson (University of Stavanger)

Elaine LaFay (Rutgers University)

Alice Would (University of Bristol)

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F39: Sound and Color as Infrastructure: Electrifying the Built Environment in the Long 20th Century

Organizer: Lida Zeitlin Wu (UC Berkeley)

Chair: Lida Zeitlin Wu (UC Berkeley)

Commentator: Sandy Isenstadt (University of Delaware)

Harry Burson (UC Berkeley): Producing Sonic Space: Telephony and the Emergence of Stereophonic Sound

Lida Zeitlin Wu (UC Berkeley): Choose Your Color': Mood Conditioning the Postwar Domestic Interior

Carolyn Kane (Ryerson University): The Neon Surround: History, Theory, and Technique

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F40: "Intellectual Property, National Security, and the Anglo-American Hegemonic Transition, 1914–1945"

Organizer: Katherine Epstein (Rutgers University-Camden)

Chair: Margaret Graham (McGill University, emerita)

Kathryn Steen (Drexel University): "Radio, U.S. Patent Law, and World War I"

Michael Falcone (Yale University): "The Politics of Erasure: Memory, Technology, and Institutions in Second World War-era Anglo-American Diplomacy"

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

F41: Health and Computation Before the Internet

Organizer: David Theodore (McGill University)

Chair: Hannah Zeavin (UC Berkeley)

Rachel Plotnick (Indiana University): Care and Feeding for the Computer: Imagining Machines' "Preventive Medicine"

Jeff Nagy (Stanford University): Hardening Feeling: Computing Psychiatric Data at Rockland State, 1960–1972

David Theodore and Theodora Vardouli (McGill University): Simulating Surgery ca. 1970

Julie Zook (Texas Tech University): Hospital Architecture and the Geometry of Nurse Paths

Friday, 19 November 2021

4:30 PM – 5:30 PM (CT)

F42: Infrastructures of Urbanization. Toward an Envirotechnical Analysis of Circulation and Disconnection in the City

Organizers: Felix Mauch (Technical University Munich) and Jan Hansen (Humboldt University of Berlin)

Chair: Jan Hansen (Humboldt University of Berlin)

Rachel Leibowitz (SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry): No Park, No Plant. The Battle over Chicago's Central District Water Filtration Plant

Jan Hansen (Humboldt University of Berlin): Governing Disaster: Street Gutters, Urban Fragmentation, and the Making of 'Modern' Los Angeles, 1910s–1930s

F43: NASA and the Environment

Organizer: Brian Odom (NASA)

Chair: Brian Odom (NASA)

Dana Burton (George Washington University): Contextualizing the Technoscientific Search for Evidence of Life Beyond Earth (Robinson Candidate)

Jenifer Barton (Memorial University of Newfoundland): 'We were shot down!': The Life and Death of NASA's 1982 Global Habitability Initiative

Lisa Rand (Science History Institute): The Pursuit of Sustainable Orbital Infrastructure at NASA

Erik Conway (NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory): Near-Earth Objects as Environmental History, Revisited

F44: Petrocultural Shocks, Hazardous Infrastructures and the Anti-Oil Movement

Organizer: Anna Åberg (Chalmers University of Technology)

Chair: Anna Åberg (Chalmers University of Technology)

Commentator: Per Högselius (KTH-Royal institute of Technology)

Kristoffer Ekberg (Chalmers University of Technology): Petrocultural Reactions - the Campaign Against Swedish Royal Dutch Shell in the 1990s.

Christos Karampatsos (NKUA, Greece), Spyros Tzokas (IMS-FORTH, Greece), Giorgos Velegrakis (IMS-FORTH, Greece), and Gelina Harlaftis (University of Crete): On Hazardous Infrastructure and

Linda Hall Library – History of Science and Technology Trivia Night

Looking for a fun way to decompress after the first full day of the HSS-SHOT Virtual Conference? Join the staff of the Linda Hall Library at 7:00 PM, CT on Friday, November 19 for four rounds of fun and challenging trivia questions inspired by our incredible collections:

- Round 1 - History of Science & Technology Grab Bag
- Round 2 - The Name is the Same
- Round 3 - Paper Cuts Questions about rare books inspired by the Library's new [YouTube series]
- Round 4 - Focus on the Fellows

Form a team of up to six people and compete for fabulous prizes! (Don't have a team? Sign up solo, and we'll find one for you!)

Participation in the quiz is free, but spots are limited. Click here to register!

Saturday, 20 November 2021

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM (CT)

SHOT Virtual Conference Desk (mail only)

Tech Support through Cadence from 8:30 AM to 5:30PM (NOT during Social Events)

7:30 AM – 9:00 AM (CT)

Envirotech Breakfast meeting

EDITH Breakfast Meeting

8:30 AM – 10:30 AM (CT)

ECIG Student Workshop II

Co-Organizers:

Juyoung Lee (Johns Hopkins University)

Patrick John F. Mansujeto (University of the Philippines-Diliman)

K. Thamarai Selvan (Indian Institutes of Technology Madras)

N. Bucky Stanton (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)

Viswanathan Venkataraman (King's College London)

Presenters:

Alejandra Ruiz Leon (Georgia Tech): Creating TECNO-ITINTEC: The first interactive science museum in Latin America

Kyle Harmse (Stanford University): Engineering the Counter-Revolution: The G5 howitzer and technopolitical power in Apartheid South Africa

Baasit Abubakr (Jawaharlal Nehru University): Circuits of the Colony: A History of Colonial Electrification in Jammu and Kashmir 1900-1947

Lydia LaFavor (Auburn University): Green Arrows at the Gates of Saigon: The End of Fixed-Wing Evacuation Operations at Tan Son Nhut Airbase, Republic of Vietnam, April 1975

Zohar Sapir Dvir (Tel Aviv University): 'Autoimperialism' in the French Mediterranean Technology, (Auto)mobility, and Culture (1918-1939)

Mentors:

Eric Schatzberg (Georgia Tech)

Sabine Clarke (University of York)

Saturday, 20 November 2021

9:00 AM – 10:00 AM

S1: Mobility Justice and the Bicycle in Historical Perspective

Organizer: Patrick Bek (Eindhoven University of Technology)

Chair: Peter Norton (Associate professor University of Virginia)

Njogu Morgan (Postdoc University of the Witwatersrand): Cycle tracks, road safety and apartheid control in Springs, South Africa (1950s-1970s)

Hendrik-Jan Dekker (PhD Candidate TU Eindhoven): Bridging the Gap: Representation, Power and Knowledge in Cycling Activism in the 1970s

Nathan Cardon (Lecturer University of Birmingham): Rethinking the Emergence of the Safety Bicycle: Global Empires and Transimperial Circuits

Patrick Bek (PhD Candidate TU Eindhoven): Governmentality and Company Control over Workers' Bicycle and Moped Practices in Postwar Netherlands, 1947-1970

S2: Historicizing engineering ethics

Organizer: Ryan Hearty (Johns Hopkins University)

Chair: Atsushi Akera (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)

Commentator: Julie Mark Cohen (independent scholar)

Timothy Shultz (US Naval War College): Technical and Ethical Aspects of Remote Warfare

Ryan Hearty (Johns Hopkins University): Environmental Ethics and Engineering Education in the US, 1970-1996

Sarah Nelson (Vanderbilt University): Engineering Consent: the Stanford Research Institute and Ethics of Research Contracting in the Age of Satellite Development and Decolonization, 1960-1969

S3: Technologies of the Underground and Underwater

Chair: Maria Paula Diogo (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Handy Acosta Cuellar (Tulane University): Keeping the Furnace Alive: African Slaves and Subaltern Metalworking Technologies in Early Modern Cuba (Robinson Candidate)

Amber H. J. Chiero (Augusta University): Mineral Miscreants: Mining, Hydropower, & Environmental Activism in Central America

Erik Isberg (KTH Royal Institute of Technology): Timing an Anthropocene ocean: Temporality and environmental knowledge in the Deep Sea Drilling Project 1968-1983

S4: Controlling Knowledge, Access, and Perceptions: Nuclear Endeavors at the Civilian-Military Interface

Organizer: Sonja Schmid (Virginia Tech)
Chair: John Krige (The Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech))

Sharon Weiner (American University): Constructing the Tritium “Requirement” for Nuclear Weapons
Aditi Verma (Harvard University): Technology Transfer, Control, and Re-Invention of the Indian Pressurized Heavy Water Reactor
Olamide Samuel (SOAS University of London): Perceptions of Maturity: Transferring Nuclear Technologies to Africa
Taylor Loy (Virginia Tech): Tritium in Transition: The Material Culture of a Special Ingredient

S5: Patents as Scientific Information: Four translations

Organizer: Eva Hemmungs Wirtén (Linköping University)
Chair: Eva Hemmungs Wirtén (Linköping University)

Johanna Dahlin (Linköping University): Translating the Inventor: Forced labour as Intellectual Property
Isabelle Strömstedt (Linköping University): Translating an Institution: the Swedish Patent Office on Display
Mattis Karlsson (Linköping University): Distorted Dimensions in a Patent Document: a (mis)translation of earth
Jose Bellido (University of Kent): Patents Translated: Microfilm as a Legal Technology

S6: Managing Memories: Technologies as Memory Devices and Objects to be Remembered

Organizer: Alex Reiss Sorokin (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)
Chair: Stephanie Dick (University of Pennsylvania)

Alex Reiss-Sorokin (Massachusetts Institute of Technology): A Complete Record of the Past: Trusting Early Computerized Legal Databases (1966-1970) (Robinson Candidate)
Meg Leta Jones (Georgetown University): Solving the Web’s Memory Problem: Cookies, User Identity, and Consumer Privacy
James Hay (University of Illinois- Urbana-Champaign): The Conjoined Governmentalities of Media Museums, the City Dump, & the “Green City”

S7: The Importance of Military Infrastructure: Temporary, Permanent, and In-Between

Organizer: Laurence Burke (National Air and Space Museum)
Commentator: Angela Riotto (Army University Press)
Chair: Lee Vinsel (Virginia Tech)

Eric Perinovic (Temple University): Practicality Outstripped by Ambition: West German Military-Aviation Infrastructure
Laurence Burke(National Air and Space Museum): A Floating City: The Aircraft Carrier as Mobile Infrastructure
Frank Blazich (National Museum of American History): Bridging the Gap: Invention, Innovation, and the Naval Landing Pontoon at Normandy
Jack Grobe (University at Albany, SUNY): Before Paperclip: The American Campaign to Steal German Military Technology, 1919- 35” (Robinson Candidate)

SHOT Internationalization Committee sponsored session

S8: Science, technology, and the modernizing states in South Asia

Organizer: Madhumita Saha (Amity Institute of Social Sciences)

Chair: Prakash Kumar (Dept. of History, Pennsylvania State University)

Aparajith Ramnath (Ahmedabad University): From technical expert to authority on economic planning: The later career of Sir M. Visvesvaraya, c. 1920-1955

Renny Thomas (Indian Institute of Science Education and Research): Techno-Spiritual' Worlds: On writing the history of Rituals and Machines in India

Madhumita Saha (Amity Institute of Social Sciences): Contested vision of modernity: Compost pits and fertilizer factories in pre-Green Revolution Indian agricultural development

Waqar Zaidi (Lahore University of Management Sciences): Civil Aviation and the Pakistani State, 1947 - 1960

D. Kim Foundation Sponsored JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S9: Global Taiwan as Method: Rethinking Global Science, Technology, and Medicine

Organizer: Wayne Soon (Vassar College)

Chair and Commentator: J. Megan Greene (University of Kansas)

Hsinyi Hsieh (University of California San Francisco): Indigenous Species for Imperial Projects: The Taiwan Monkey as a Research Subject from Japanese Colonial Sciences to Postwar US Naval Medical Research

Wayne Soon (Vassar College): Making Actuarial Science Precarious: International Labor Organization and the Taiwan Health Insurance Program, 1960–1970

John Hayashi (Harvard University): History's Rhythm: Taiwanese Timber and Japanese Climate Science in the Twentieth Century

Ying Jia Tan (Wesleyan University): Taiwan as Trailblazer for Tropical Hydropower, 1919-1935

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S10: Raw Materials, Supply Chains, and the Politics of Scientific Technologies – Round Table

Organizer: Christine von Oertzen (Max Planck Institute for the History of Science)

Chair: Viktoria Tkaczyk (Humboldt University Berlin)

Panelists

Sven Dupré (University of Utrecht)

Sebastian Felten (University of Vienna)

David Pantalony (Physical Sciences and Medicine Canada Science and Technology Museum)

Fanny Gribenski (CNRS, Paris/New York University)

Suzanne Marchand (Louisiana State University)

Simon Werrett

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S11: Navigating the Profession with Chronic Illness or Invisible Disabilities

Organizer: Allison Marsh (University of South Carolina)

Chair: Allison Marsh (University of South Carolina)

Allen Driggers (Tennessee Technical University): Chrohn's

Jillian Hinderliter (University of South Carolina): Auto-Immune

Caroline Peyton (University of Memphis): RA
Laura Smith (University of Arkansas): Meniere's

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S12: Vast Canvases: Science, technology, and the rendering of marine environments

Organizer: Samantha Muka (Stevens Institute of Technology)

Chair: Samantha Muka (Stevens Institute of Technology)

Hayley Brazier (University of Oregon): Out of Sight, Out of Mind: Public Perception and the Visibility of Seafloor Technologies (Robinson Candidate)

Samm Newton (University of Wisconsin Madison): Pteropods Realized: Organismal Technology and the Co-production of Environmental Value

Penelope Hardy (University of Wisconsin- La Crosse): Drafting the Deep: Knowing the Ocean through Images in the Mid-Nineteenth Century

Samantha Muka (Stevens Institute of Technology): Creating Responsible Pollution?: C-WARP, Conservation, and the Ocean as Landfill

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S13: Practicing and Formalizing: Engineering Creativity in the Twentieth Century

Organizer: Ekaterina Babintseva (Harvey Mudd College)

Chair: Patrick McCray (University of California, History Department)

Commentator: Janet Abbate (Virginia Tech, Department of Science, Technology, and Society)

Honghong Tinn (University of Minnesota, Twin Cities): City of Displacement: Electronics, Creativity, and Urban Space in Taiwan

Ekaterina Babintseva (Harvey Mudd College, Hixon-Riggs Early Career Fellow in Science and Technology Studies): Producing Rule-Based Creativity: Automation and Thinking in Late Socialism and Capitalism

Aaron Mendon-Plasek (Columbia University, Department of History): Creativity as efficacy criteria: how machine learning became artificial intelligence in the 1980s and reshaped our descriptions of the social world

Evan Hepler-Smith (Duke University Department of History): Making it Explicit: Formalization and Creativity in Chemistry

Saturday, 20 November 2021

11:00 AM – Noon (CT)

S14: Warfare and Bodies

Chair: Hannah Zeavin (University of California, Berkeley)

Michelle Spektor (Massachusetts Institute of Technology): Database of the Potential Dead: Religion, Military Service, and Biometric Identification in Israel

Gerard Fitzgerald (George Mason University): Germ Warfare: O. H. Robertson, Chemical Germicides, and the Technological Challenge of Airborne Disease Prevention in the United States Military, 1941-1947

Peter Thompson (University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign): The Dispersing and Dispensing of Colonial Bodies: Germany's Racialized Deployment of Mustard Gas in the Interwar Period

S15: Pedagogy of Engineering Ethics (Unconventional session)

Organizer: Brit Shields (University of Pennsylvania)

Chair: Ron Kline (Cornell University)

Margo Boenig-Liptsin (UC Berkeley)

Jennifer Alexander (University of Minnesota)

Jenna Tonn (Boston College)

Brit Shields (University of Pennsylvania)

Atsushi Akera (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)

S16: Prometheus in the Garden of Eden: Gardens as Anthropogenic Object: Roundtable

Organizer: Maria Paula Diogo (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Panelists

Maria Paula Diogo (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Ana Simões (School of Sciences, University of Lisbon, CIUHCT)

Ana Duarte Rodrigues (School of Sciences, University of Lisbon, CIUHCT)

Anna Aberg (Chalmers University of Technology)

Leme José Luís (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Davide Scarso (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Agusti Nieto-Galan (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona)

Ivo Louro (NOVA School of Science and Technology, CIUHCT)

Ana Matilde Sousa (School of Fine Arts, University of Lisbon, CIEBA)

Nina Wormbs (KTH Royal Institute of Technology)

Johan Gärdebo (Linköping University)

Tiago Saraiva (Drexel University)

S17: Environments, Infrastructures, and Social Justice in Africa

Organizer: Tasha Rijke-Epstein (Vanderbilt University)

Chair: Tasha Rijke-Epstein (Vanderbilt University)

Commentator: Laura Ann Twagira (Wesleyan University)

Jethron Ayumbah Akallah (Maseno University): From Flying Toilets to Flying Water Pipes: Re-imagining Infrastructure Development in Kibera Informal Settlement, Nairobi

Joshua Grace (University of South Carolina): Cars After African Socialism: History, Sustainability, and Mobility in an East African City

Tasha Rijke-Epstein (Vanderbilt University): Engineered Omby (cattle): Technoscience, Animate Nationhood, and Socialist Madagascar

Stephan Miescher (University of California, Santa Barbara): Ghana's Inland Water Highways: Infrastructure and Challenges of Volta Lake Transport

S18: New Historical Approaches to Artificial Intelligence

Organizers: Aristotle Tympas (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) and Matthew L. Jones (Department of History, Columbia University)

Chair: Amy Slaton (Drexel University)

Panelists

Matthew L. Jones (Department of History, Columbia University)

Aristotle Tympas (Department of History and Philosophy of Science, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)

John Tinnell (University of Colorado): The Anthropologist of AI: Lucy Suchman on the Limits of Human-Computer Interaction

S19: Present Perfect Progressive

Organizer: N. Bucky Stanton (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)

Chair: N. Bucky Stanton (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)

Celine Nguyen (Royal College of Art): Design, Information, Translation: Revisiting the Jacquard Loom (Robinson Candidate)

Samaa Elimam (Harvard University): The Technological Monument: Engineer-Historians and the Making of the Past in the Nile Valley (Robinson Candidate)

S20: Gender, Race, Class, and the Infrastructure of the Sky

Organizer: Alan Meyer (Auburn University)

Chair: Michael Neufeld (Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum)

Commentator: Amy Sue Bix (Iowa State University)

Roger Connor (Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum): "Ghetto Birds": Los Angeles Police Department Helicopters and Race Since 1969

Peter Eveleigh (University of Manchester): "Just a Lot of Enthusiastic Boys": The Deliberate Exclusion of "The Man in the Street" from the Elite Skies of England

Erinn McComb (Del Mar College): "Querer es Poder": The Story of America's First Latina Military and Commercial Airline Pilot

Alan Meyer (Auburn University): "Last Hired and First Fired": The Enduring Lack of Racial Diversity in the Airline Cockpit

SHOT Internationalization Committee sponsored session

S21: Vacant timeslot

S22: "From the 'Black Box' to the 'Empty Box': Infrastructure and Social Justice in the Southern Cone

Organizer: Sonia Robles (University of Delaware)

Chair: Nelson Arellano Escudero (Universidad Academia de Humanismo Cristiano Chile)

Miguel Muñoz Asenjo (Universidad de Santiago de Chile): Imaginary in the transition towards the establishment of a sanitation system in Santiago de Chile (1886-1931)

Jorge Mujica-Urzúa (Universidad Metropolitana de Ciencias de la Educación Chile): A White Elephant on the Andes: The Great Grubb Refractor at the core of the modernization of the Chilean National Astronomical Observatory

Monica Humeres (Diego Portales University): "The modern criterion says": the forgotten axes of 'infrastructuring' policy in Latin America

D. Kim Foundation Sponsored JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S23: Capturing Motion: New Approaches to Power / Knowledge in the History of Science and Technology

Organizer: Hiromi Mizuno (University of Minnesota)

Chair: Hiromi Mizuno (University of Minnesota)

Kate McDonald (University of California, Santa Barbara): The Housewife Cart Force and Other Transport Innovations: Histories of Human Power in Contemporaneous Frame

Victor Petrov (University of Tennessee): A Song for Fujitsu: Socialist Bulgarian Accelerationism and the Japanese Model in the Late Cold War

James Lin (University of Washington): Feeding “the World’s Costliest Military Machines:” Rice, Fertilizer, and State Power in Authoritarian Taiwan, 1949-1960

Hiromi Mizuno (University of Minnesota): Nitrogen in Motion: Fertilizer Flow between the East and West in the Cold War

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S24: Another Vast Machine: Data, Models, and Simulations in the Human Sciences (Part I)

Organizer: Tabea Cornel (New College of Florida)

Chair: Emily Merchant (University of California, Davis)

Hallam Stevens (Nanyang Technological University): Hadooping the Genome: The impact of text search tools in biomedicine

Tabea Cornel (New College of Florida): Fluorescent Sensors in Bayesian Brains: Transgenic Mice as Statistical Technologies in Neurogenomics

Christopher Phillips (Carnegie Mellon University): Anatomy of a Biomedical Controversy: Cancer Screening, Statistics, and Simulation Modeling

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S25: Visioning Past and Future in Science Museums and Educational Technologies

Organizer: Elizabeth Petrick (Rice University)

Chair: Patrick McCray (University of California, Santa Barbara)

Elizabeth Petrick (Rice University): Replacing Visions: The Notetaker Prototype and the Loss of Education

Morgan Ames (University of California, Berkeley): Throwback Culture: The Role of Nostalgia in American Educational Technology

Petrina Foti (Loughborough University): Science Museums and the Intangible: Curatorial Visions of the Future

Elena Aronova (University of California, Santa Barbara): The Revolutionary Avant-Garde: Scientific Modernity at the Moscow Museum of Biology in the 1920s

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S26: Legacies of Silent Spring

Organizer: Marsha Richmond (Wayne State University)

Chair: Frederick Davis, R. (Purdue University)

Gene Cittadino (New York University): Ecology and the Bomb: A Retrospective Assessment

Ryan Hearty (Johns Hopkins University): Ruth Patrick, DuPont, and the Biological Monitoring of Pollution in the US, 1950-1970

David Hecht (Bowdoin College): Stressful Environments: Nuclear Power and the Politics of Public Health

Jole Shackelford (University of Minnesota): Chronobiology and Environmental Impact in Projects Sanguine and Seafarer

JOINT SHOT-HSS SESSION

S27: Expertise and Exercise

Organizer: Katherine Contess (Brown University)

Chair: Scott Kushner (The University of Rhode Island)

Adam Hebert (University of Pittsburgh): Faster, Higher, Stronger?: Olympic Bodies in Motion and the Loss of the "Open" Machine

Katherine Contess (Brown University): From the Harvard Fatigue Lab to Peloton: Towards a History of the Exercise Treadmill

Hongwei ThornChen (Tulane University): Performing Expertise, Reforming Customs: Cinema, Industrial Technique, and Embodied Knowledge in Semi-colonial China

Saturday, 20 November 2021

12:30 PM – 2.00 PM (CT)

SHOT Awards- and Fellowships Ceremony 2021 (Plenary Session)

SHOT SIG Meetings: Prometheus Virtual Lunch Meeting

Saturday, 20 November 2021
